All Families Are Special

THIS IS A VERY SPECIAL SHOW ABOUT THE FAMILY STRUCTURES THAT ARE IN OUR COMMUNITY TODAY.

I wonder who lives at your house So many sizes and different rules at different homes! So many types of families! Single parents, step parents, grandparents at home, foster families, a new baby, not to mention our pets as well!

Butterfly costumes are used to tell a story about a family adapting to changing circumstances and relationships. We soon discover that all families live and love in many different ways.

A fantastic visual backdrop and family puppets are used with great music in this important show.
